Prevention of Sexual Harassment and Ragging Committee

Report on Workshop

A workshop on 'Ragging – Violation of Human Rights' was organized by Prevention of Sexual Harassment and Ragging Committee on 14-08-2024 in the college on the occasion of Antiragging Week. Dr. N Vani Shree, Principal and former Chairperson of the PG Department of studies in law, NAAC and IQAC Coordinator, JSS Law College (Autonomous) Mysuru addressed the students on Ragging and Sexual Harassement.

She said that Ragging, a form of harassment that typically occurs in educational institutions is indeed a violation of Human Rights. This harmful practice sometimes involves senior students subjecting new comers/ freshers to physical, Emotional or psychological abuse.

Further she explained the types of Ragging and Body Shaming and also Ragging that Violates human rights. She also said about Right to Dignity, Right to Life and Personal Liberty and advised the students to take care of them by acting smartly according to the situation.

More than 80 students participated and took pledge on Antiragging and gained the knowledge about how they can interact with their juniors without hurting them physically and mentally. This created awareness among the students that welcoming fresher's can be more cordial and friendly.
