Report on Awareness Program: International Day Against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking

On 26 June 2024, the college organized an awareness program to mark the International Day Against Drug Abuse and Illicit Trafficking. The event was attended by approximately 88 postgraduate students. Ms. Latha, Sub-Inspector from Saraswathipuram police station, Mysuru addressed the students and emphasized the dangers of drug abuse and the legal consequences of involvement in illicit drug activities. Ms. Latha's insights not only shed light on the current drug scenario but also encouraged students to actively participate in creating a drug-free community. The session included an interactive Q&A, where students engaged deeply, reflecting their commitment to the cause. The program concluded with a pledge from all participants to remain vigilant and support anti-drug initiatives.
