Introduction:

On August 7, 2024, JSS College for Women, Saraswathipuram, Mysore, organized a one-day awareness programme to educate students about postal services and schemes. The programme aimed to provide insights into the various postal services offered by India Post and highlight the benefits of the available schemes. The session was conducted by Mr. Srinivas and his team from the West Division Post Office, Mysore.

Objectives of the Programme:

1. To Educate Students: Inform students about the diverse range of postal services provided by India Post.
2. To Highlight Schemes: Explain the various schemes and benefits associated with postal services.
3. To Enhance Awareness: Increase awareness among students about career opportunities and practical applications of postal services.

Programme Schedule:

- 12.30 PM: Registration and Welcome Address
- 12.40 PM: Overview of Postal Services by
- 12.50 PM: Detailed Presentation on Postal Schemes
- 1.30 PM: Interactive Q&A Session Key Highlights
- 2.30 PM to 5.00 PM: online registration and IPPB Account opening campaign.

Overview of Postal Services:

Srinivas sir and his team provided a comprehensive overview of the range of services offered by India Post, including traditional mail services, parcel services, and financial services such as savings accounts, insurance, and pensions. They emphasized the efficiency and reliability of these services.

The team elaborated on various schemes such as the India Post Payments Bank (IPPB), Sukanya Samridhi Yojana, Public Provident Fund (PPF), and Savings

Scheme for students. They discussed the benefits, eligibility criteria, and application processes for each scheme.

The session also covered career opportunities within India Post. Students were informed about the different roles and responsibilities, potential career growth, and the qualifications required for various positions.

An engaging Q&A session allowed students to seek clarification on various aspects of postal services and schemes. Srinivas and his team addressed numerous queries, providing detailed and insightful responses.

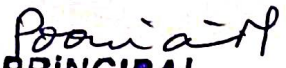

The programme witnessed active participation from over 300 students from various departments. The engagement level was high, with students showing keen interest in understanding postal services and exploring career possibilities in this sector.

Feedback:

Feedback from participants was overwhelmingly positive. Students appreciated the clarity of the information presented and the opportunity to interact directly with professionals from the postal service. Many expressed a newfound interest in the schemes discussed and a better understanding of how postal services can be utilized in their daily lives.

Conclusion:

The one-day awareness programme was a successful initiative by JSS College for Women, Saraswathipuram, Mysore. The session provided valuable insights into postal services and schemes, enhancing students' awareness and understanding. The involvement of Srinivas and his team was instrumental in making the programme informative and engaging. This initiative not only educated the students but also opened avenues for future career exploration within the postal services sector.
