

Course outcome Semester wise

Subject: History

I Semester

History of India (Upto 1206 CE)

- Understands the organic link between the geographical factors in shaping history from time immemorial.
- Have a fair knowledge about the sources.
- Appreciates our ancient civilization and culture.
- Understands the historical circumstances for the rise of new religions and their influence.
- Understands the development of kingdoms and contributions of some of the ancient dynasties.

II Semester

Socio-Political History Of India (From 1206 To 1716 CE)

- Understands the influence of Islam on India and thereby its effects on Indian Society.
- Appreciates the transitional phase and synchronization of different cultural ethos and the Society.
- Appreciates the style of art, architecture and paintings.
- Understand the historical reasons for the opening of India to European Mercantile Companies.
- Studies the influences of regional languages.

III Semester

Political History Of Karnataka (From 3 BCE To 1565 AD)

- Understands the continuity in political developments and political strategies.
- Studies the importance of regional kingdoms.
- Understands the rise of new dynasties in the context of era of political supremacy.
- Studies the foundation of dynasties and their struggle to establish political hegemony.
- Appreciates the confluence of diverse cultural elements.

IV Semester

Socio-Cultural History Of Karnataka (From 3 BCE To 1565 AD)

- Studies the evolution of Kannada language and script and later its transformation.
- Understands the influence of contemporary conditions on society.
- Make a note of influence of religion and society on socio-cultural life of the time.
- Studies literature and its development during different ruling dynasties and their contributions.
- Understands the concepts of Bhakti and protest as transitional changes.

V Semester
Indian National Movement (1885 – 1947)
Compulsory Paper

- Judge the historical writings and identifies their importance to understand struggle for freedom.
- Understands the concepts Nation, Nationality and Nationalism.
- Studies the growth of nationalism, and its regional varieties.
- Understand different phases of nationalism as a fight against colonialism.
- Studies the growth of communalism and its impact on Independence Movement and Partition.

V Semester
History Of Karnataka (1565 - 1956)
Elective Paper 1

- Study the political transitions and later in the context of imperialism.
- Understands the concepts of imperialism and colonialism, and later their influence.
- Study the varieties of anti-British uprisings in different regions.
- Understand the development of Princely Mysore under indirect colonial situation.
- Make a study of political and linguistic mobilizations and their historical necessities.

V Semester
History Of Modern India (1757 - 1885)
Elective Paper 2

- Studies circumstances leading to British political supremacy in India in European perspective.
- Understands the gradual political hegemony enjoyed by the British.
- Studies the expansion of imperialism and colonialism in different geographical regions in India.
- Make a study of influence of British rule on India.
- Understands the historical context, regions, nature and consequences of Revolt of 1857 and the transfer of administration of India.

VI Semester
Europe And The World (1789 – 1945)
Compulsory Paper

- Studies the importance of 18th and 19th Centuries in determining the contemporary Europe.
- Make a note of transition from merchant capitalism to industrial capitalism.
- Studies the impact of imperialism and colonialism on non-European societies.
- Understand the era of conflicts.

Studies the causes and effects of world wars.

VI Semester
Contemporary World (1945 - 2000)

Elective paper-1

- Critical examination of Post-World War II Politics in the context of cold war and its impact.
- Understand the contemporary international politics in the light of emergence of Blocs.
- Studies different areas of conflicts and their varieties.
- Understand the world politics after 1989.
- Study the influence of liberalization, privatization and globalization on the contemporary world.

VI Semester
Contemporary Karnataka (1956 - 2006)

Elective paper-2

- Critical evaluation of initial problems which emerged in Karnataka after Unification.
- Understand the disputes after unification in Karnataka.
- Studies major movements in contemporary Karnataka.
- Understand the contemporary politics.
- Studies the influences of international perspective and struggle for Kannada identity.

V Semester
Indian National Movement

General Elective-1

- Make a study of impact of colonialism and its influence on the growth of nationalism.
- Understands different phases of nationalism.
- Study the era of Gandhi with a special reference to Gandhian techniques.
- Understand nationalists.
- Make a note of impact of growth of communalism and its consequences on Partition and independence.

VI Semester
Heritage Tourism In Karnataka General Elective-2

- Understand the concept of Heritage.
- Make a note on heritage sites in India.
- Study briefly tangible, intangible and natural heritage sites.
- Make a study of “Mysuru” as an important heritage city.
- Understands heritage tourism and world heritage centers in Karnataka.

Course outcome Semester wise

Subject: Economics

I – Semester

Core Economics I: Principles of Microeconomics-I

- To expose the student to the basic principles in Microeconomic theory and their applications.
- It helps the students to gain the knowledge of consumer behaviour
- Students will get the knowledge of elasticity of demand and supply, production analysis and different market structure.

II – Semester

Core Economics II: Principles of Micro economics-II

- It gives students a thorough understanding of the principles of economics that apply to the decisions of individuals-both consumers and producers- with the large economic system.
- Study both product and resource markets and how they operate.
- It helps in gaining the knowledge of income distribution and how the factors of production are prized.
- It helps to concentrate on theories of international trade, tariffs and quotas

III – Semester

Core Economics III: Principles of Macroeconomics-I

- It helps the students to learn the basic concepts in Macroeconomics with the aggregate economy.
- A student will be able to: make decisions using marginal analysis and opportunity costs.
- It helps the students to know how the price and output are determined by changes in demand and supply in market.
- It helps in determining the GDP.

IV – Semester

Core Economics IV: Principles of Macroeconomics-II

- Students learn modern macro economics.
- Knowledge of IS-LM model.
- It helps in analyses of various theories of determination of National Income in greater detail.
- It helps students to concept of Inflation, its relationship with unemployment and some basic concepts in an open economy.

V Semester

Discipline Specific Elective (DSE) 1: Economics of Development

- It helps students in understanding major trends in aggregate economic indicators of economic development.
- It helps in learning demographic trends and institutional factors.
- They learn the theories of economic development and growth.
- They gain the knowledge of occupational structure in organized and unorganized sector.

V Semester

Discipline Specific Elective(DSE) 2: Money and Banking

- It exposes students to the theory and functioning of the monetary and financial sectors of the economy.
- They learn on structure and role of financial markets and institutions.
- They will gain the knowledge of interest rates, monetary management and instruments of monetary control.
- Students get information on major financial and banking sector reforms with special reference to India.

V Semester

Discipline Specific Elective(DSE) 3: Environmental Economics

- It helps students to learn the concepts, methods and policy options in managing the environment using tools of economic analysis.
- It gives knowledge on analytical mind and familiarity with basic concepts of economics.
- It helps students to know about environmental problems caused by economic activities.
- It helps in gaining knowledge of different approaches to adjusting behaviour through economic institution such as markets and incentives as well as through regulation, etc.

VI Semester

Discipline Specific Elective (DSE) 4 : Economic Development Policy In India

- The learner/students will gain knowledge of building on the more aggregative analysis of trends in the Indian Economy offered in Economic Development and Policy-I,
- It helps the learner/students to understand the sector-specific trends in key indicators and their implications in the post-Independence period.

VI Semester

Discipline Specific Elective (DSE) 5:Economic History of India 1857-1947

- It helps in understanding the key aspects of Indian economic development during second half of British colonial rule.
- The paper helps the investigator the place of Indian economy in the wider colonial context, and the mechanisms that linked economic development in India to the compulsions of colonial rule.
- It helps to know economy and state in the imperial context.

VI Semester

Discipline Specific Elective (DSE) 6:Public Finance

- It helps the students to know the non-technical overview of government finances with special reference to India.

- It helps to know the knowledge of efficiency and equity aspects of Taxation of the centre, states and the local governments and the issues of fiscal federalism and decentralization in India.
- It helps the students in aiming towards careers in the government sector, policy analysis, business and journalism.

Generic Elective-1

Introduction to Economics

- It helps the non economic students to learn the basic concept of micro and macro economics.
- Students gain knowledge on concepts of national income and GDP.
- The student learns measurement of NI, Methods of measuring NI, Importance and Difficulties.

Generic Elective-2

Money and Public Finance

- The students are exposed to money and capital market.
- The paper helps to understand the concept of Public Finance.

Subject: Political Science

I Semester

Introduction To Political Theory

- Students can understand the Rights and Duties by study of Politics and Political theory
- It also ensure to promote and reinforce democratic ideology in Young minds
- It facilitate to create awareness on Political obligation.
- Students can easily take part in Political debate directly or indirectly they can take part in the Decision making process in the Country

II Semester

Indian Government And Politics

- To throw light on administration and system of Government in Various Countries.
- To explore the role of administrative machinery
- To Highlight the importance of Constitutional Growth
- To facilitate the Civil service aspects
- To Concentrate on Parliamentary debates and of country and ensure peaceful co-existence

III Semester

Comparative Governments And Politics

- To throw lights on administration and system of Government in various Countries.
- Students can understand the performance of various Government at the global Level with analytical ability.
- Student can understand the values of individual Vote and their participation in Democracy
- It is indeed helps the Students to concentrate on relevant and reliable issues especially on Aadhar, Right to Property, and Right to Education etc.

IV Semester

Introduction To International Relation

- Student can Know the major analytical and theoretical framework regarding international relations
- Understand behavior of the Countries in international relations
- Recognize issues of Social Justice in global context.
- Students can develop Regional Competency and Cultural Competency.

V Semester

Themes In Comparative Political Theory (Elective Paper-1)

- Understand the contributions of different thinkers to the Political theory
- Students can comparatively analyze Indian and Western political Philosophy
- Students can evaluate the contributions of different thinkers.
- To throw light on relevance of Political Theory and thought.

Democracy and Governance(Elective Paper-2)

- Learners can Understanding the Values of Democracy
- Students are able to explain the institutional aspects of Democracy
- Understanding How democratic institutions function within Constitutional framework.
- Students are able to Compare and Evaluate the Democratic government with other forms.
- Students will understand recent trends in Indian Democracy

VI Semester

Administration of Public Policy Concepts and Theories (Elective Paper 1)

- Knowledge of Public Policy facilitate the learners to understand the role and Importance of Public Policy in State welfare.
- It is imperative to focus on the importance and Relevance of Administrative theories
- It creates awareness on various programmes and projects launched by the Government.
- Learners can Understanding the process of Policy Making

Understanding Globalization (Elective paper 2)

- Students can Understand the Phenomenon of Globalization
- Students can Understand about Sources and Forms of Globalization
- Student can Analyse the role of Global Actors in World Politics
- Recognize the Problems of Global Actors and its Solutions

Human Rights Gender and Environment (Generic Elective paper 1)

- Students can Understand the Importance of Human Rights
- Students can Understand about Role of UN in protection of Human Rights
- Student can Analyse the different issues and Problems on Human Rights
- Recognize the Problems of Global Actors and its Solutions on Environmental issues

(Reading Ghandi) Generic Elective paper 2

- Students can Understand the Gandhian views on Hind Swaraj
- Student can Analyse the Relevance of peace and Nonviolence in Indian Democracy
- Recognize the Contribution of Mahatma Gandhi on Social Justice